

The Applied Linguistics Conference 2019

25 - 27 November 2019
Curtin University, Perth, Western Australia

Applied Linguistics and Language Teaching: Making Connections

Although Applied Linguistics and Language teaching are distinct, they are also interrelated with each informing the other in terms of research and pedagogy. Therefore, the theme of the conference “Applied Linguistics and Language teaching: Making connections” provides an opportunity for discussion about how links can be made between the two areas within Australia and internationally.

Join researchers, language professionals, and interested community members in the 2019 biannual combined Applied Linguistics Association of Australia and the Applied Linguistic Association of New Zealand conference to be held at Curtin University in Perth, Australia.

Keynote speakers:

Rod Ellis
Curtin University

John MacAlister
Victoria University of Wellington

Carmel O'Shannessy
Australian National University

Alison Wray
Cardiff University, UK

Shawn Loewen
Michigan State University

Important dates:

Abstract submission opens early February 2019

Abstract deadline 30 June 2019

Early Bird registration 21 August 2019

For more information visit:

www.alaa-alanz2019conference.com